Disruption of Dolphin Services

2440. SHRIMATI MOHSINA KIDWAI:
SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA:

Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY be pleased to state:

(a) whether on 24th of October MTNL Dolphin Network was not in proper functioning gear;

(b) if so, whether this was due to the mass scale repatriation of senior and middle level officers of Indian Telecommunication Service (ITS); and

(c) what "reliable system" has been evolved by Government to ensure that communication services especially relating to Mobile are not adversely affected due to random episodes as happened this time?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (DR. SHAKEEL AHMAD): (a) MTNL's Cellular Mobile Network was functioning normally on 24th October, 2005. However, there was interruption in the cellular mobile network for incoming calls for a period of two hours on 24.10.2005 in Main Switching Centre at Tis Hazari in MTNL, Delhi only.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) Performance of network is watched very carefully and all efforts are made to provide uninterrupted service by closely monitoring and taking prompt corrective action.
